

Fawcetts in Tune with the Festival

Salisbury based Fawcetts Chartered Accountants once again support one of the biggest events in the Festival programme.

With Fawcetts' support the Festival has invited charismatic violinist and conductor Pinchas Zukerman and the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra to perform a delicious programme in the splendour of Salisbury Cathedral.

Richard Allen a partner at Fawcetts says of this support 'We are delighted to be supporting the Festival and particularly, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Pinchas Zukerman is one of the world's finest violinists and we are proud that with our support the Festival is able to invite artists of such calibre to perform in our region.'

With a line up featuring Beethoven's violin concerto, music that Zukerman has made his own, and Tchaikovsky's fourth symphony, the RPO also powerfully introduces the Festival's Russian focus.

Tickets for this event are getting very close to selling out. So make friends with someone from Fawcetts, as it may be the only way you will get a ticket!

Continued support from our valued sponsors such as Fawcetts and our principal sponsor Friends Provident allows us to present a programme that is made for all of you.
