

ABC prize-winner full of laughs at Festival's Jenny Eclair Event

At this year's Salisbury International Arts Festival a very high calibre of comics had crowds laughing all over the city. The Festival's sponsor ABC Networking ran a hotly contested competition for tickets to Jenny Eclair, their sponsored event, which many people entered.

The winner of the coveted prize was Jill Gannon from Bassets Estate Agents.

Jenny Eclair was delivered in partnership with ABC Networking, Salisbury International Arts Festival and Salisbury's City Hall.

ABC Networking Ltd of Salisbury, the Festival's IT sponsor, was delighted to sponsor this event and the evening was enjoyed by all their guests.

Maria Bota, Festival Director says of the event: "We are delighted at the success of the evening and hope that Jill enjoyed the evening, generously sponsored by ABC Networking".

Ends

For further information please contact Rosa Corbishley on 01722 33 22 41 or email rosa@salisburyfestival.co.uk

Note to Editors:

ABC Networking is expert in delivering enterprise class solutions for businesses of all sizes. They are a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner and specialise in providing cost effective IT services and support, data and email encryption, and security solutions. Contact: Emma McDonald, ABC Networking, 26-27 Barack Business Centre, Blakey Road, Salisbury, SP1 2LP. Tel: 01722 411 999, Email: emma@abcnetworking.co.uk

The Salisbury International Arts Festival has a distinguished history of presenting international arts events, both traditional and contemporary, across 16 days of celebrations each summer. The Festival has developed into a major annual UK multi-arts event, presenting every major art form, in the stunning setting of in and around Salisbury, Wiltshire. Participants and audiences travel from far and wide.

The Salisbury International Arts Festival is supported by Friends Provident, Wiltshire County Council and Arts Council England – South West.