

The Daily Telegraph

March 1, 2011

NEWSPAPER OF THE YEAR

Irish Republic €1.20

telegraph.co.uk No 48,44

Telegraph events

Salisbury International Arts Festival Priority Booking - opens today

As official media partner to the Salisbury International Arts Festival, we are offering readers a week of exclusive priority booking for all performances during the Festival.

From today until Monday, March 7 readers can exclusively pre-book any performances at the Salisbury International Arts Festival running from May 20 until June 4.

The Festival offers a packed programme of theatre, dance, circus, film, music and spoken word in locations around the beautiful historic city. On the Festival's opening night the sky becomes a stage in a performance by world famous Argentinean company Voalà. This year's programme includes several new commissions and exclusive performances, with a feast of poetry, story and song in the new music commission Where Two Worlds Touch, and the UK première of a new piece by Beijing Modern Dance Company. Music fans can enjoy everything from Jan Garbarek and the Hilliard Ensemble and City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra to Cuban stars Sierra Maestra.

To view the full Salisbury International Arts Festival programme, visit www.salisburyfestival.co.uk

How to Book

To take advantage of this priority booking week from Tuesday, March 1 - Monday, March 7, please call 0845 241 9651 and quote 'TELEGRAPH READER' or go online to www.salisburyfestival.co.uk/telegraph

Salisbury International
Arts
Festival

